Foreign Minister is Called Back Unexpectedly To Belgrade From Budapest, Where he Had Arrived Only Wednesday to Sign Treaty of Friendship With Hungary; Sofia Incident May Cause Break With Britain

JAPS ORDERED OUT OF FRENCH INDO-CHINA

BULLETIN
Tokyo, Feb. 27.—(P)—Japan was reliably reported tonight to have delivered an ultimatum to French Indo-China, demanding that she accept Japan's "final" proposal of mediation in the Indo-China Thailand border dispute by midnight Friday. The nature of the ultimatum was not disclosed, but it was understood that the foreign office had notified Vichy that unless a favorable reply was forthcoming the matter would pass to the jurisdiction of military officers in the French colony.

By the Associated Press
Balkan diplomats heard today that Soviet Russia has raised objections to the passage of German troops through Bulgaria as dispatches from Belgrade said the Yugoslav general staff ordered a speed-up in defense preparations. Yugoslavia was said to fear now that German armies massed in Rumania might attempt to invade Greece through Yugoslavia instead of Bulgaria.

Yugoslavia's foreign minister, Alexander Cincar-Marovic, was called back unexpectedly to Belgrade from Budapest, capital of Hungary, where he had arrived only yesterday to sign a Yugoslav-Hungarian treaty of friendship.

Diplomatic quarters in Budapest heard that his abrupt recall was connected with "impending events of importance between the Axis and Yugoslavia."

Long the traditional protector of her "little Slav brothers" in Bulgaria, Soviet Russia may have decided to stiffen her attitude toward a German thrust into south-east Europe as a result of conferences now going on in Ankara, Turkey.

Sir Stafford Cripps, Britain's envoy to the U. S. R., flew to Ankara today as Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden and Gen. Sir John G. Dill, chief of the British imperial general staff, conferred with Turkish leaders—presumably on moves to counter any Nazi attack on Greece.

Sir Stafford, it was believed, may be carrying news of Russia's attitude if Turkey should resolve to fight. In the past, Russia has been represented as exerting strong pressure on Turkey to remain neutral.

Relations between Britain and Bulgaria were further strained by the mysterious disappearance of a member of the British legation staff in Sofia, said to have been kidnapped "by Bulgarian police at the behest of the Germans."

British quarters said the incident might lead to a break in diplomatic relations between Bulgaria and Britain.

A claim by Hitler's High Command yesterday that German mechanized troops had met and defeated British forces in the Libyan desert was countered by British general headquarters in Cairo today. A communiqué said British mechanized forces "drove back" a reconnaissance unit "believed to be German" in Libya.

In the Far East, Japan ordered her nationals to be prepared to leave French Indo-China and arranged to take what the Japanese press described as "appropriate measures" in the event of a breakdown in peace negotiations between Thailand (Siam) and Indo-China. Domei Japanese news agency, said a climax was expected within 48 hours, "with present indications not too optimistic."

Japan has been reported to have sought military and economic concessions from the French colony as the price for mediating the Far East dispute, and has massed warships in the Gulf of Siam. Ready for action, thousands of Australian troops have been sent (Turn to Page Fifteen)

Steelworkers Form Own Picket Patrol in Lackawanna Strike

As 3000 C. I. O. steel workers went on strike at the Bethlehem Steel plant in Lackawanna, N. Y., members of the union were sworn in as special policemen to patrol their own picket lines. Some of 50 designated for picket duty are shown as they received oath from Lackawanna city clerk, James Redmond.

TURKO - BRITISH CONFERENCE IS SATISFACTORY

Ankara, Feb. 27.—(P)—British and Turkish leaders were authoritatively reported today to have reached "full agreement" on problems affecting the Balkans and the eastern Mediterranean situation. It was indicated that the conference tomorrow would turn also on the subject of Russia. Sir Stafford Cripps, British ambassador to Russia, arrived at Istanbul by plane from Moscow today and was to join the conference at Ankara. British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden and General Sir John G. Dill, chief of the British imperial general staff and their aides and British Ambassador Sir Hughe Knatchbull-Hugessen met in the Turkish cabinet room with Turkish Foreign Minister Sukru Saracoglu, Field Marshal Chakmak and officers of the Turkish general staff "for a general review of the situation."

(Sir Stafford left Moscow by plane today and reports in the Russian capital said Eden has requested the ambassador to proceed to Turkey for the conference.)

Abdul Halik Renda, president of the Turkish national assembly, also attended the conference. Unofficial reports said Great Britain is sounding out Turkish reaction to a plan for regulating traffic through the Dardanelles, strategic waterway linking the Mediterranean and the Black Sea.

Some sources said they believed Eden would propose that Turkey assume strict jurisdiction over the strait, barring all merchant traffic without special permission.

Reports from Sofia, meanwhile, disclosed that General Nicola Petkoff, chief of staff of the Bulgarian army, had conferred last night with Premier Bogdan Philoff and Foreign Minister Ivan Popoff preliminary to an emergency meeting of the cabinet.

There was no indication of the reason for the sudden activity, and the Bulgarian government issued another denial of reports that German troops had entered the country.

HIKER IS SOUGHT IN TWO DEATHS

Morgantown, N. C., Feb. 27.—(P)—Coroner Russell Green announced today that he would open an inquest at 7 o'clock tonight into the death of Thaddeus Floriewicz of Uniontown, Pa., whose bullet-pierced body was found beside a burning automobile on a lonely road near here.

Green also held a hitch-hiker responsible for the death of Robert S. Devins, another Uniontown man, whose body, also pierced by bullets, was found Monday morning near Bowling Green, Va.

The coroner and police officers of North Carolina and Virginia expressed the opinion that a pistol found near Floriewicz' body Monday night was responsible for both deaths. Floriewicz' body was found beside Devins' automobile, a fact that caused the Federal Bureau of Investigation to start an inquiry on (Turn to Page Fifteen)

James Signs Act Appropriating $14,500,000 For Relief And Citizens Treasurer's Fund

Measure, the First Law Enacted by 1941 Legislature, Provides Relief Money for Last Three Months of Biennium

SUM TERMED LARGE

Harrisburg, Feb. 27.—(P)—Governor James today signed an act appropriating $14,500,000 for relief and at the same time criticized a Republican-Democrat compromise agreement which allocated $180,000 of the sum to Democratic State Treasurer F. Clair Ross for administrative purposes.

The act—the first law enacted by the 1941 legislature—provided relief funds for the last three months of the current biennium. "Not only do we regard this as a bad business practice, but the amount fixed is a much greater sum than, in my opinion, should be required to perform the duties," James said.

As the relief treasury was replenished a special committee appointed by the Democratic house opened its investigation of the (Turn to Page Fifteen)

NAZIS IRKED BY NETHERLANDS DISTURBANCES

Berlin, Feb. 27.—(P)—The possibility that "British agitators" are being landed in The Netherlands by parachutes and swift motorboats at night was suggested in Berlin today.

A Nazi spokesman declared, however, that the effectiveness of such operations was limited and that measures being taken by German military authorities to suppress disorders in Amsterdam and Rotterdam were proving adequate.

In Amsterdam, it was reported that the clashes between civilians and German military police yesterday brought death to at least six persons and injuries to several others.

A "great number of persons responsible for the disturbances or having participated therein" were arrested, a brief German announcement said last night.

It declared the clashes occurred when civilians fought police taking action against "the ring-leaders of nightly attacks against the police patrol and a secret Jewish organization."

The outbreaks followed strikes (Turn to Page Fifteen)

Now We Know Who Gets the Bugler Up

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 27.—(P)—Now we know who gets the bugler up—it's the bugler of the guards. But who arouses the bugler of the guards? Simple, the officer of the day. But who, no one. The "OD" is up all night.

CLOSURE TALK HINTED TO END DEBATE ON BILL

Washington, Feb. 27.—(P)—Senator Taft (R-Ohio) said in the Senate today that President Roosevelt is "deliberately holding back aid to England in order to put pressure on this congress" to pass the administration's British aid bill.

His assertion brought a retort from Senator Chandler (D-Ky) that "the senator from Ohio says he wants to help England but he wants to help 'em just enough so they're certain to get beat."

"He (Taft) wants to be in a position at some time in the future," Chandler declared, "that both sides will think he was for them. He wants to aid 'em $2,000,000,000 worth so they will get beat."

Washington, Feb. 27.—(P)—Senator Chavez (D-NM) and Senator Brown (D-Mich) took up the cudgels today on the British aid bill, Chavez contending that legislation invited war while Brown argued that it was the best "the only weapon" at hand for the self-defense of American democracy.

With the general debate now in its tenth day, some supporters of the bill manifested fresh uneasiness over the possibility of a surprise opposition filibuster, despite an agreement to start consideration of amendments next week.

Senator Van Nuys (2-Ind) said he would not be surprised at such (Turn to Page Fifteen)

71 INDICTED IN GIANT LOTTERY

Pittsburgh, Feb. 27.—(P)—A federal grand jury today indicted 71 persons on charges of violating postal laws in the operation of an eight-state lottery, which post office agents described as a "million-dollar" enterprise and one of the largest of its kind in the nation.

Acting on a complaint entered by acting U. S. Attorney George Mashank, the grand jury returned indictments charging the 71 with using the mail for furtherance of a lottery and with conspiracy to violate postal regulations through distribution of materials for a lottery based chiefly on the treasury balance and sports results.

The jury's action resulted from an 18 months' investigation of the Pool Owners Association, which Postal Inspector D. H. Stephens charged was organized and headed by Louis Cohen, former Boston attorney and one of those indicted.

The complaint charged the organization had its main headquarters at 901 Drexel Hill district of Philadelphia, and operated in Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Maryland, Ohio, New York, Massachusetts, Florida and Delaware.

WORKERS IN STEEL MILL OUT

Pickets Block Gates At Bethlehem Corporation's Two-Mile-Long Plant in Lackawanna in Strike Which C. I. O. Officials Describe as 100 Per Cent Effective and Company Calls a "Dismal Failure"

INCREASE IN WAGES DEMANDED BY UNION

BULLETIN
Buffalo, N. Y., Feb. 27.—(P)—The general manager of Bethlehem Steel's Lackawanna plant where a strike has been called, appealed today to Governor Herbert H. Lehman for "adequate police protection" to safeguard "loyal and patriotic" workers. Edward F. Entwistle vired the chief executive that "neither the city of Lackawanna nor the sheriff of Erie county has thus far furnished police protection outside our gates, adequate to insure the men who desire to enter this plant can do so."

Buffalo, N. Y., Feb. 27.—(P)—Determined pickets blocked gates at Bethlehem Steel Corporation's two-mile-long plant in suburban Lackawanna today in a strike which CIO officials described as virtually 100 per cent effective but the company called a "dismal failure."

"Only a request from President Roosevelt himself can induce us to call off the pickets," said Union Leader John Riffe. "Right now the strike stands."

The plant's parent concern has an estimated $1,500,000,000 in defense orders.

In his first public statement on the labor dispute at the plant, which employs 14,000, General Manager Edward F. Entwistle said the strike was a "dismal failure." Heads of the Steel Workers Organizing Committee, which called the strike, claimed several hundred pickets were on hand to greet the shift reporting for work this morning.

The union seeks a 25% wage increase, reinstatement of "suspended" employees and an NLRB-sponsored election to determine a collective bargaining agent.

Seventy-five Buffalo policemen opened the plant's seldom-used (Turn to Page Fifteen)

STRIKE THREAT AT FORD PLANTS POSES PROBLEM

Detroit, Feb. 27.—(P)—Strike threats in the heart of Henry Ford's industrial dominion created a possible major problem in the national defense effort today.

Word was awaited concerning House of Commons gave Prime Minister Churchill's government a unanimous vote of confidence today on the issue of whether members of parliament appointed to posts outside the country should be permitted to retain their seats.

The House approved a bill to accomplish this purpose after the prime minister had forced the issue by declaring he would consider the vote a matter of confidence.

It affects such envoys as Malcolm MacDonald, the new high commissioner to Canada, and Sir Samuel Hoare, wartime ambassador to Madrid.

Some members had contended that sending members of parliament away from home for the duration of the war and permitting them to keep their seats would leave their constituencies without representation.

Prior to the vote, Churchill said amidst opposition ones as "no, Ford Company is trying to discourage union organization and is will arise to the war effort of the country" is the bill permitting the envoys to keep their seats in Commons was turned down.

Company I Leaves For Camp After Rousing Farewell Demonstration

Throng Estimated at Between Two and Three Thousand People Fills Every Available Inch of Space Around Depot Following Parade

OLD GUARD TURNS OUT

With thousands of Warren citizens on hand to bid them farewell, members of Company I, 112th Infantry left last night by special train for Indiantown Gap Military Reservation, where today they began a year's training in the United States Army.

It was a rousing send-off that the citizens of the borough and county accorded the departing soldiers. All along the line of march from the state armory to the Pennsylvania Railroad station, crowds lined the streets. At the depot a throng estimated at between two and three thousand persons filled every available inch of space.

As the special train started on its way, eight minutes ahead of schedule, there was a roar of farewells from the crowd and although the men are scheduled only for about six weeks, tears filled the eyes of scores of relatives, wives and sweethearts.

The procession which escorted Company I from the state armory to the railroad station was an impressive one. Preceded by a police escort, the parade was headed by the national colors and the Warren High School Dragon Band.

Members of the Citizens' Farewell Committee, which had charge of the arrangements, followed the high school band. They were followed by a large delegation from the American Legion.

The second division of the parade was headed by the Veterans of Foreign Wars band, followed by about sixty members of the old Company I of World War days. Members of the present Company I completed the procession.

The parade moved promptly at 6:45 o'clock, started by an aerial salute. The fireworks, shot at intervals during the march to the railroad station, added to the impressiveness of the occasion, as did red, white and blue streamers which were placed on each side of the line of march.

At the depot the procession disbanded and members of Company I marched to the north side of the station, where they awaited the arrival of the train. As soon as it moved into place, the men immediately went to their cars.

As the soldiers entered their cars, they were greeted with cigarettes, candy and gum by members of the Citizens' Committee.

The first stop made by the special train after leaving Warren was at Kane, where five units totaling 135 men joined the local company. The next stop was in Harrisburg about three o'clock this morning. The train arrived at Indiantown Gap at five o'clock and the first order of business was a breakfast served by the company's kitchen force, which has been in camp for the past week.

Although there was little opportunity for leave-taking at the railroad station, (Turn to Page Fifteen)

GERMAN TO FILE COURT ACTION AGAINST EARLE

Sofia, Bulgaria, Feb. 27.—(P)—A German industrialist who said he had lived three years in Sofia declared today he was the second man in the bottle throwing episode in a cafe here Saturday night with United States Minister George H. Earle.

Dr. Carl Becker, 34, received three American newspapermen in his office and said he had given an attorney information for a court complaint against Earle.

No complaint has been filed thus far, however, so far as could be learned.

Dr. Becker, who said he had no connection with the army or politics, declared the incident began when Earle came to his table. (Officials in Washington said last night that Earle could not be legally arrested or tried on assault charges.)

The plane fell miles from a paved highway and about 700 yards from the nearest dirt road on which ambulances could travel, so that the injured had to be carried this distance across a muddy cornfield.

ACE FLIER IS AMONG 9 INJURED

Fourteen-Passenger Sleeper Plane, with Eddie Rickenbacker Aboard, Bangs Against Wooded Knoll Shortly After One O'clock This Morning While Attempting a Beam Landing After a Run From New York

SURVIVOR TELEPHONES NEWS ABOUT TRAGEDY

Atlanta, Feb. 27.—(P)—Dropping away from a radio beam, an Eastern Air Lines plane ripped itself to pieces in a pine woods near here today, killing seven and injuring nine others, including famed flier Eddie Rickenbacker.

The 14-passenger sleeper banged against a wooded knoll shortly after 1 a. m. (EST) while attempting a beam landing after a run from New York but searchers did not find the wreckage until shortly after dawn when an injured passenger made his way to a phone to call for help.

Five miles from the airport and 700 yards from the nearest dirt road, rescue work was painfully slow and it was not until mid-morning that seven bodies had been removed from the smashed cabin and nine injured taken to hospitals.

Undertakers reported seven bodies brought in. Three of these were identified as those of the crew, Captain James Perry, Co-pilot, L. E. Thomas and Steward Clarence Moore, all of New York.

Early morning radio reports of the Georgia accident recalled to many in Warren that "Captain Eddie" Rickenbacker was a visitor here in the days when the R. W. Norris Company was the distributing agent for the Rickenbacker cars.

The other four bodies were those of passengers listed on the official EAL roster as:

Rep. William D. Byron (D-Md) of Williamsport, Md., B. C. M. Vanderhoop, Scarsdale, N. Y., Juan Maria, San Salvador, Central America, and A. Leibowitz, Atlanta.

Identification of the dead passengers was made difficult by the fact that they were dressed in pajamas, some of them having been asleep in the plane's berths. Of the nine in hospitals, those in the most serious condition seemed to be Rickenbacker, who had a broken left leg and back injuries of undetermined extent; H. A. Littlefield, an assistant managing editor of the New York Times from Short Hills, N. J., whose injuries were not determined at once, and Mrs. Littlefield.

J. S. Rosenfeld of New Orleans and N. Hansell of the Bronx, N. Y., both were able to walk away from the shattered plane, the former giving the alarm that brought searchers to the isolated crash scene which is about 5 miles southeast of the airport and some 15 miles from Atlanta.

Littlefield and his wife, who is editor of Parents' Magazine, were en route to Mexico on a vacation trip.

The plane fell miles from a paved highway and about 700 yards from the nearest dirt road on which ambulances could travel, so that the injured had to be carried this distance across a muddy cornfield.

Rosenfeld was thrown clear of the plane and made his way about 20 yards in the darkness, where he fell into a ditch. Injured and shocked, he lay there until dawn when he made his way to the farm home of C. C. Sherman near Morrow which is about five miles south of the airport.

Sherman took him to a small store, and Rosenfeld telephoned for help shortly after 6 a. m.

High test gasoline was dripping from the wrecked plane.

The plane first struck among some pines, ripping away one of its metal-covered wings and mowing a path through the trees. It crashed another 150 yards or so where a pine impaled the second wing and the sliced-open cabin skidded to a stop some 50 yards further.

Rosenfeld said the passengers had no indication that anything was wrong until the plane started losing altitude, then the lights went out and the impact came a few seconds later.

Gifts Burden Down Many Infantrymen

Indiantown Gap, Feb. 27.—(P)—Infantrymen arriving at Pennsylvania's military reservation today had so many momentous and gifts from home they didn't have pockets enough to carry them.

The 11th Infantry band was rolling the soldiers out of their coaches with "Roll Out the Barrel." First tuba player Paul Spano could make the "oomp" with gusto but the "pah" had no nerve, so half way through the selection he asked a trombone player to investigate. He found Spano's lunch, in a paper bag, way down inside the horn.

Notice!

Change of Interest Rate

The undersigned hereby give notice that on and after April 1, 1941, the maximum rate of interest to be paid on savings accounts and time deposits will be 1 1/2% per annum.

The primary responsibility of banks is to safeguard depositors' funds. The sound policy for banks to follow is to pay interest on deposits only in accordance with the income banks can obtain on their investments.

The demand for satisfactory loans is far below normal, and it is impossible for banks to invest all their deposits in loans. A large portion must be kept in cash and on deposit with Federal Reserve Banks, and the remainder can be invested only in the highest grades of bonds. The prevailing rates of income on United States Government and other high grade securities are the lowest in financial history. In many instances the yields from these investments are considerably under 2%. Recently offered U. S. Government securities due in 1945 pay 3 1/2% interest.

These conditions have resulted in reduced earnings, and as everyone knows, banks are confronted with increasing taxes. Already many banks have reduced their interest rates, in some instances to 1% per annum or less. These reductions have been made in many surrounding communities, such as Erie, Jamestown, Bradford, Olean, Meadville, Kane, Ridgway, St. Marys, Sharon, Sheffield, Youngsville, and similar nearby communities, as well as generally throughout the country.

Therefore, under present conditions, we believe this action is justified by conservative banking policy.

Noted Foreign Correspondent Will Tell Experiences In Lecture Here

Long before the outbreak of the current war with its harrowing adventures for journalists as well as for soldiers, H. R. Knickerbocker, famous news correspondent who lectures at the Woman's Club here tomorrow evening at eight o'clock under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. Lecture Forum Course, was celebrated for the spectacular "scoops" he had turned up in newspaper assignments all over the world.

On his first war assignment, which was the Italian-Ethiopian conflict, Knickerbocker was credited with the outstanding stunt of the war. He slipped away one morning in a Frenchman's private plane and made a dangerous flight over the northern front, the first and only correspondent from the Ethiopian side to see it.

Covering the Spanish civil war, he scored another hit when he was the first correspondent to reach the insurgent army headquarters in northern Spain, flying from Paris over a country torn by war and risking the danger of being shot down. His dispatches from Franco's lines were nothing short of historic and also the sensational account he wrote upon his release from a dungeon in which he spent thirty tortuous hours. His ingenuity in getting these dispatches out of the country, uncensored was a feat which sometimes required traveling for 22 hours.

From the Spanish rebellion, Knickerbocker flew to Shanghai and dropped right into the midst of the attack Japan was making upon China. After weeks in the shell-rocked port, he made his way to Nanking and narrowly escaped with his life in the first major aerial bombardment of the nationalist capital.

Jumping from war realities to war possibilities, Knickerbocker made a complete survey of Europe and Asia studying the war preparations that were being carried on throughout the world and reported his discoveries in a comprehensive series of articles entitled "The Red Trade Menace," which won for him the Pulitzer prize for the best foreign correspondence in 1930.

Following this assignment, Knickerbocker went to Palestine where he did a series of articles on the Jewish situation. He had nearly put the last words to the final one when the Czechoslovakian crisis called for his services in central Europe, where he once again scooped the world on the fateful "appeasement" decision by the British and French ministers.

Throughout the years leading up to the actual outbreak of the war in September, 1939, Knickerbocker warned time and time again of Hitler's menace to the future peace and security of the world. For his efforts, Knickerbocker was prohibited from traveling in Germany long before Munich and the Nazis have since a prize on his head—a fact which has not kept Knickerbocker from covering during the past year in Holland, Belgium, France and England the deadly advance of Hitler's legions.

Individual tickets for Knickerbocker's lecture here tomorrow night may be obtained at the Y. M. C. A. or at the Woman's Club auditorium on the night of the lecture.

NEW FOUNTAIN AT KRESGE'S TO OPEN MARCH 1ST

The newly installed bar-type fountain-luncheonette in the S. S. Kresge 5c to $1.00 store at 204 Liberty street will open Saturday, March 1, with a tempting list of delicious specials. The completely remodeled and enlarged store is expected to open about the first week in April, according to the store's manager, F. A. Wood.

"We feel that the fountain-luncheonette of the new Kresge's will please customers, shoppers, and business people who are looking for a place where wholesome food will be served inexpensively and quickly," Mr. Wood said. "So the fountain is being opened as soon as installation of the new equipment is completed, instead of waiting for the completion of the rest of the store."

Extending 50 feet along the right-hand side of the store, the fountain is equipped to seat and serve 27 persons. Chrome stools, with a backrest, upholstered in red leather set, the modernistic note at this area. The marble counter is 38 inches high and is recessed to allow plenty of knee room. A 6 1/2-inch magnesite step forms a convenient foot rest for customers. Matching the red tone of the stools is the red vitrolite counter top and the red and tan tile wainscot background—all easy to clean.

Modernistic, eye-saving fluorescent lighting under a metal hood gives a subdued, almost daylight illumination to the entire fountain area. Recessed stainless steel shelving units, mirrors and modern display racks complete the background. The floor is linoleum.

Stainless steel fountain fixtures, including a steam table, a mechanically refrigerated salad section and a 30 gallon ice cream unit make up the regular equipment. This permits serving hot or cold foods at the peak of their perfection.

The modern, scientific kitchen, located just below the fountain, is connected with it by a double car dumb waiter. A mechanical dish-washing unit with 180 degree sterilization equipment insures full health protection. Other kitchen equipment includes fryers, ranges, huge ovens, mixers and other conveniences of the latest designs. All pastries used at the fountain are baked in the Kresge kitchen according to nationally tested and approved recipes. The fountain menus will offer new and different dinners daily at special prices and will also suggest various specials according to the seasons.

Mr. Wood advises that a root beer or stand-up lunch counter also will be opened when the remodeled and enlarged store is completed. Miss Tillie Jones will be fountain manager and will direct the work of the fountain personnel. Miss Jones has had several years restaurant experience and is well known locally.

Kresge fountain-luncheonettes are famous for good food in dozens of American cities. Recipes are exchanged through the central office which tries out fountain managers' suggestions and passes on the good ideas. Over 320,000 people eat daily at Kresge's fountains and luncheonettes.

Warren Electric To Hold First Meeting On Friday Evening

The Warren Electric Cooperative, Inc. and the Rural Electrification Administration Corporation will hold its first annual meeting of members in the Youngsville high school auditorium at 7:30 o'clock Friday evening.

The gathering is arranged for the purpose of electing directors for the coming year; also for the presentation of officers' reports.

There are to be awarded several prizes, articles donated by electric appliance dealers and wiremen.

All members are requested to make a special effort to attend this meeting and anyone else interested in the rural electrification program is invited to be present.

During 1939, slightly more than two used passenger cars were sold for every new car.

DOUBLE ACTION PACKED PROGRAM AT COLUMBIA TODAY AND FRIDAY

"Santa Fe Trail"

The new Errol Flynn-Olivia de Havilland co-starring film, "Santa Fe Trail," will be the next feature attraction at the Columbia Theatre and is scheduled to open there today and Friday. Yesterday's history makes today's screen thrills in this film story of real adventures that real Americans lived. Jeb Stuart, General Custer, John Brown, and hundreds more whose names are familiar to all Americans live again on the screen in the persons of Flynn, Ronald Reagan, Raymond Massey, and others.

"Gallant Sons"

Thrills and laughs follow thick and fast in "Gallant Sons," drama of schoolboy loyalties, which comes today and Friday to the Columbia Theatre, with Jackie Cooper, Bonita Granville, Gene Reynolds and other snatching high school students adventuring as amateur detectives. The adult class, directed by George B. Seitz of "Hardy Family" fame, the story evolves about a group of youngsters who turn detective when the father of one of their pals is accused of murder. They ferret out the real criminal and nature of the crime and trap the man by reproducing the entire affair as a high school play. Amid the thrills and laughs is a juvenile romance between Cooper and Miss Granville, and adult romance between Miss Patrick and Hunter.

EAST WIND VARIABLE

Whether an east wind is dry or wet depends on where you live. In Palestine, they are hot and dry, while in many parts of the United States, an east wind means moisture.

Governor James Announces Plans For Formation of Defense Unit

While immediate formation of a Pennsylvania reserve defense force drilled to combat parachutists, gas attacks and air raids in time of war has been ordered by Governor Arthur H. James, no information has been received here as to when such a "home guard" unit might be formed in Warren.

According to an Associated Press dispatch from Harrisburg today, the force would have a maximum strength of 5,000 men as the nucleus of a streamlined corps patterned strictly along military lines and would take the place of the National Guard, now in federal service.

The federal government will supply a maximum of 5,000 rifles, thus restricting the size of the home guard. Uniforms will be supplied by the state out of appropriations normally for the National Guard.

During the World War a similar unit was formed, known as the Pennsylvania Militia. Warren's unit of the Pennsylvania Militia at that time was known as Company M and was under the command of the late Dr. J. T. Danforth.

In addition to being a defense unit, the governor said, the Home Guard will give special attention to training in air raid warnings and defense against air attack.

"This vital subject," he said, "will receive special emphasis in the training program with stress laid upon methods of obtaining advance information and warnings for protection against aerial assault."

The governor's acting adjutant general, Brigadier General Robert M. Valli, will be commander of the corps. Valli said company commanders soon to be selected would begin taking one-year enlistments within the near future.

The corps will be based on the standard army tables of organization, with minor variations. Composed of one brigade, it will hold at least one drill a week, with two drills for non-commissioned officers.

LOCAL CATHOLIC CHURCHES OPEN LENTEN SEASON

Ashes blessed at the Ash Wednesday morning masses were distributed to worshippers in both St. Joseph's and the Holy Redeemer churches last evening, with good sized congregations present to begin the six weeks of Lenten devotions.

During the coming weeks, St. Joseph's church will have recitation of the Rosary, sermon and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament every Wednesday evening. Stations of the Cross at three o'clock each Friday afternoon and again at 7:30 in the evening, concluding with the Benediction; daily masses at 7:30 a. m. and devotions in honor of the Infant of Prague at 7:30 o'clock each Monday evening.

At the Holy Redeemer church last evening there was a service which included the Rosary, sermon and Benediction, followed by the distribution of ashes. This same program, Rosary, sermon and Benediction, will be carried out each Wednesday during Lent.

Each Friday and Sunday evening, there will be Stations of the Cross and Benediction and masses will be sung daily at 7:30 a. m.

MARSHALL LARSEN POST

The regular meeting of Marshall Larsen Post, No. 314, V. F. W., will be held in the post rooms in Clarendon this evening at eight o'clock. This post is cooperating with the American Legion post of Warren in filling out defense questionnaires. Any veteran in Clarendon who has failed to register should do so at this meeting, it was stated.

GIFTS FOR MEN

The Warren Salvation Army corps prepared a small gift for each member of Company I which will be handed to them in camp today, it was announced this morning. The package included a copy of the Warren corps golden jubilee program and a quantity of plain government postal cards for the purpose of sending a hurried note back to relatives and friends when they have their first spare minutes for writing.

OFFICERS NAMED

Officers of the administrative council of the Sons of Italy of Warren, elected recently, were announced today as follows: President, Domenico D'Andrea; vice president, Santo Morasco; treasurer, Joe Vesco; financial secretary, Joe Manno; recording secretary, Frank Manfrey; delegate to convention, Domenico D'Andrea; trustees, Angelo J. Scalise, Domenico Dolacino, Frank Greco, Peter Molinaro, and Gaspar Scrivano.

WALLACE TO SPEAK

Vice President Wallace, addressing a message of greetings to Latin America, is to join in the first of a series of "The Americas Speak" programs presented over the MBS chain Sunday afternoon by Rotary International, according to an Associated Press dispatch. The vice president is to speak from Washington, then the program is to switch to Mexico City, where Miguel Aleman, minister of the interior, is to respond. The balance of the broadcast will consist of Mexican music and other features.

MEMBER OF TEAM

Arthur J. Reed, Warren senior at Syracuse University, was a member of the fine arts team which on Tuesday won second place in the Rome collaborative competition sponsored by the Association of the Alumnae of the American Academy in Rome, according to word just received by his father, S. A. Reed. Young Reed, senior in architecture and team architect, started his art work in school here, studying under the direction of Miss Hildegard Edwards. The second prize carries a cash award of $100 and this is the first time a Syracuse team has won a place in the Rome competition.

Clarendon

Clarendon, Feb. 26—The February meeting of the Young Women's Auxiliary met at the home of Lorena Mae Burton last Wednesday evening. Devotions and the program were in charge of Janet Sleeman. The supper taken from the text book was "Move On Youth." At the close of the program, refreshments were served by the hostess and a social hour of games and contests enjoyed.

The Woman's Benefit Association, Review No. 15, held its regular meeting in the Odd Fellows hall on Tuesday evening, February 18th. Ten members were present. After the regular business meeting a shower for Mrs. Eloise Leobell was held. Valentines were exchanged and read. A very tasty lunch was then served by the committee.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Irwin and children motored to Cory last Sunday and spent the day visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Maloney.

Mr. and Mrs. Naldo Garber and daughters motored to Mayville on Sunday and visited at the home of Mrs. Beulah Freay.

The Women's Society of Christian Service will hold their February meeting Friday evening at 7:30. Mrs. Mabel Taylor will be the leader and Mrs. Emma Miller and Mrs. Donna Burkhardt will act as hostesses.

Mrs. John Rowley has received word that her uncle, Charles O. Taylor, had passed away. Mr. Taylor was superintendent of the McKean County Home for 20 years. About six years ago while repairing a storm screen he lost his balance and fell down a fire escape and was injured in such a way that he has been an invalid ever since.

Mrs. Lillie Whitton is spending some time visiting Mrs. Martha Jeffords.

The members of the Epworth League of the local Methodist church held a party in the church parlors last week. A business meeting was held and the following officers elected for the coming year: President, Earl E. Campbell; first vice president, Mary Jane McCool; second vice president, Ruth Johnson; third vice president, Joyce Barnes; fourth vice president, Claude Allen, Jr.; secretary and treasurer, Ruth Barnes, and pianist, Joyce Barnes. The remainder of the evening was spent in playing games and enjoying a delicious lunch. Those present were Billie Albaugh, Earl Campbell, Rev. Emerson Jones, Addison Jones, Junior Allen, Ruth Campbell, Joyce Reed, Ruth Kienek, Joyce Barnes, Ruth Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Yagge and Mary Jane McCool.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert White motored to Buffalo on Friday evening. Mr. White returned home on Saturday, but Mrs. White remained to spend some time with relatives.

A co-operative mission class is being held each Sunday evening in the Methodist church. Interesting programs, music and special features have been planned for the next six weeks course beginning on February 23 and ending March 30. On March 2 the program, which will be in charge of Ruth Johnson, will be "Young Revolu-tionist." Music will be furnished by Mrs. Clara Nielsen and there will also be a talk by the pastor. On March 9 the program will be in charge of Mrs. Mabel Taylor and the subject will be "Chiang-Ki-Chek." Music will be furnished by Joyce Barnes and there will also be stereopticon views shown.

The J. L. H. Sunday school class held a mothers and daughters banquet at the home of Mrs. John Rowley on Wednesday for quilting. The remainder of the evening was spent in various forms of entertainment.

The Woman's Division of local church activities will hold a meeting at the home of Mrs. John Rowley on Wednesday for quilting. The World's Day of Prayer will be observed in the Methodist church on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Everyone is most cordially invited to attend.

COMPANY I DEPARTS

For genuine enthusiasm and affection it is doubtful if last evening's farewell reception to Company I, 112th Infantry, could have been excelled. Despite biting atmosphere that nipped ears and froze keys on musical instruments one of the largest crowds that ever turned out to any evening event in Warren lined the avenue from Hickory street to the Pennsylvania railroad depot, where the throng overflowed the plaza and adjacent platform so dense that officials and committee members found it difficult to clear the tracks for the train.

From the time the company returned from evening mess until the train pulled out of the station everything clicked according to schedule, with admiring friends and relatives milling about the boys at every opportunity anxious for a last-minute farewell greeting.

Peacetime induction into the Federal service establishes a precedent for the Pennsylvania National Guard, but these are emergency times, bristling with international complications but not so critical but that there is reason for hoping the actual warfare may be averted.

Members of the local Guard unit take with them the best wishes of every resident in the county which they represent, as was demonstrated by the interest shown in their leave-taking.

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER

All churches of the city will unite in the observance of the annual World Day of Prayer Friday afternoon with special services at 2:30 o'clock at Trinity Memorial Episcopal church.

World Day of Prayer is being observed with similar services throughout the United States. The day of prayer is sponsored by the National Committee of Church Women representing the National Council of Church Women, foreign missions conference and Council of Women for Home Missions.

A beautiful devotional program has been arranged by those in charge of the service, following along lines that will be carried out at similar exercises throughout the length and breadth of the land.

Since every congregation in the borough has been invited it is expected the service will be largely attended.

SYMPATHETIC SEWERS

Reminiscent of World War days, women of Warren, as well as all over the country, are gathering in little sewing meetings, where their needles fly and their hands are full of energy turning out vast quantities of products for the relief of soldiers of warring countries and our own land, also for the aid of refugees and distressed civilian populations.

This effort might be called the silent protest of women against the folly of men, and their effort to bind up the cruel wounds of conflict.

One begins to realize just how many of these "knitting meetings" are held each week in Warren by reading the various notices that are carried in church announcements and in the society columns.

In this connection it is interesting to note that while many local women who were active doing sewing and knitting during the days of 1917-1918 are to be found in the groups now engaged in similar work, a large number of younger women to whom knitting needles were strange implements a few months ago are now "taking stitches" on every opportunity.

Special credit for the success of last evening's demonstration as a tribute to Company I should go to the musicians in the V. F. W. and High School bands. In spite of the intense cold which numbed fingers and almost silenced wind instruments they stuck to their tasks and provided the inspiration that stirred the enthusiasm of the crowd as well as the soldier boys.

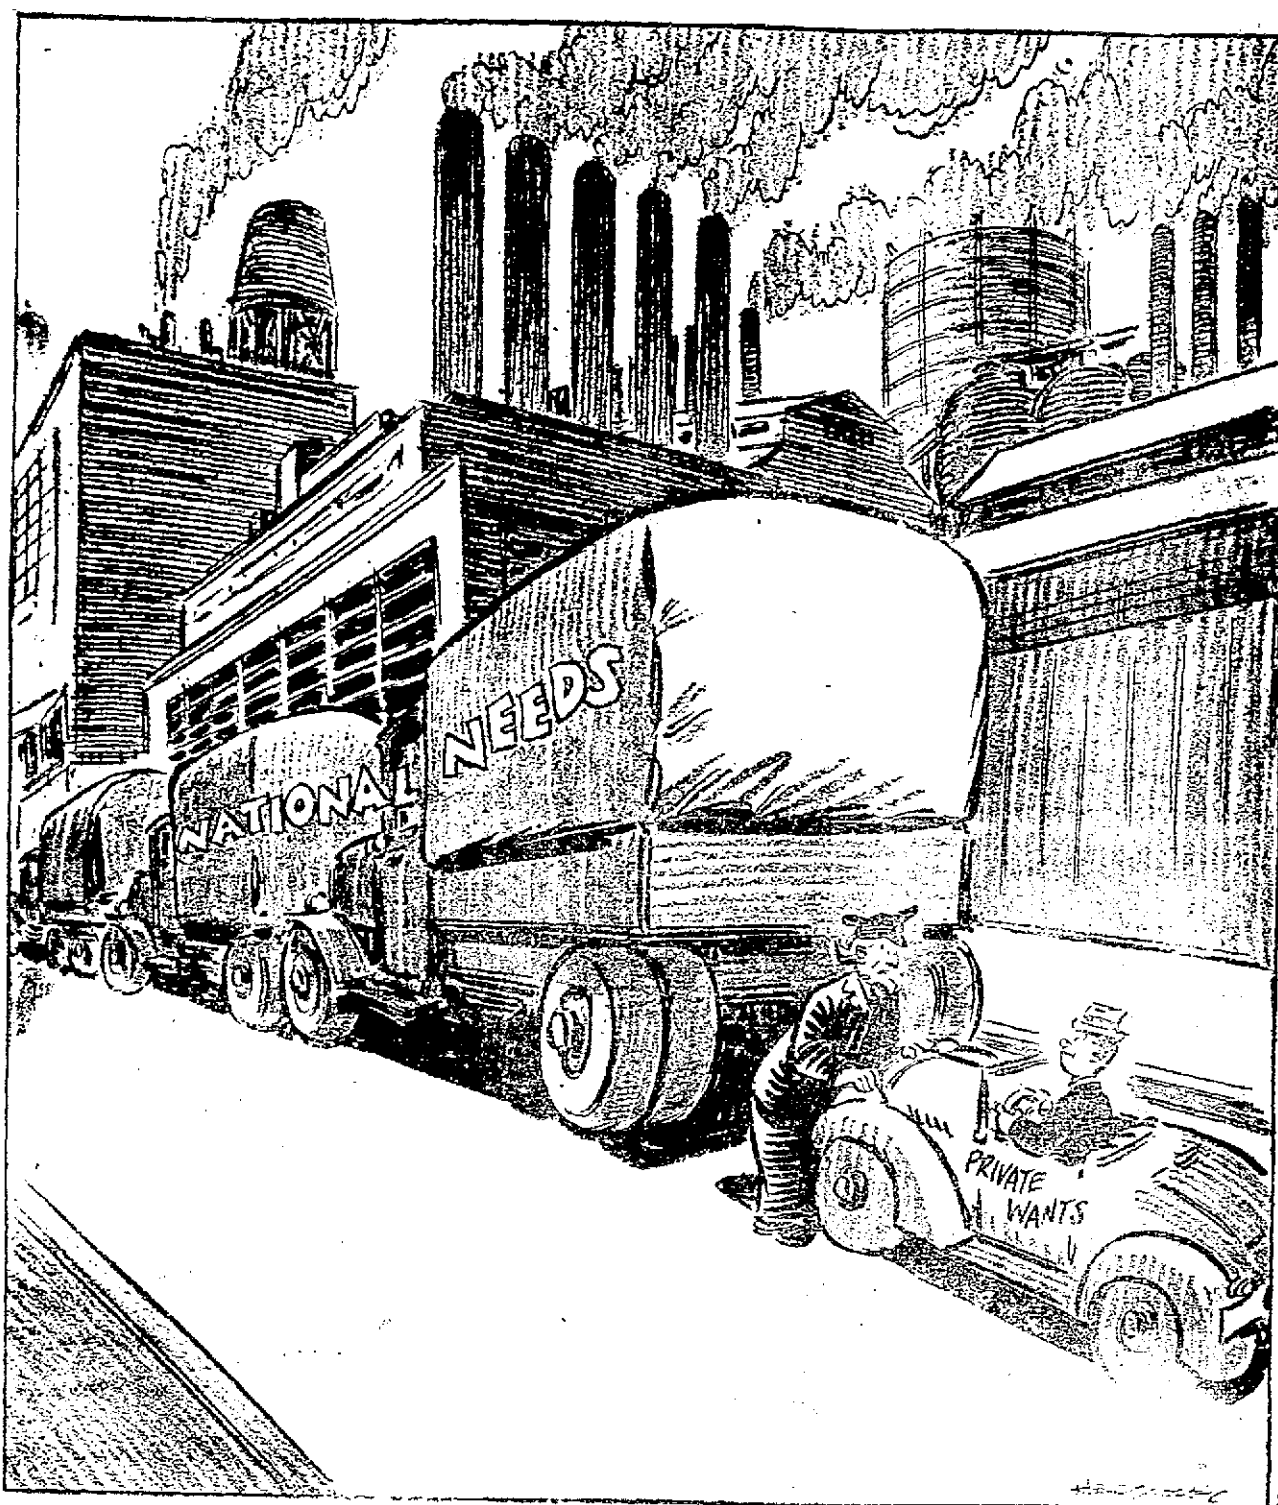

And now that they are in camp, don't forget to write them—often!

If You Think All Government Reports Are Dull, See "Misconduct" in Social Security Paperback

Washington, Feb. 27.—Unpatriotic and sordid meanness have from time to time circulated malicious rumors to the general effect that all government reports are dull reading and fit only to give employment to the people who carry out wastebaskets.

Exceptions have been made for the government weather report, which furnishes the day's chief item of conversation; the crop reports, which help the farmers and facilitate speculation and gambling on the grain exchanges; and the daily treasury balance, which has been a great boon to the numbers racket.

But by and large, no government report has ever been a best-seller, and as substitutes for bedtime stories, a government report is no good because, if read aloud to any unsuspecting child, it might put him to sleep all too permanently.

All this slander is unfortunate indeed, for some of the most solid reading in the world can be found in these mimeographed and printed paperbacks, and as exhibit A in proof thereof, your attention should be called to one of the latest numbers, just issued by the Social Security Board. The title—don't let it scare you—is "Unemployment Compensation Interpretation Service, Benefit Series, Vol. 3, No. 12."

George Marsh, who has been selling road building and bridge material supplies in Warren for the past 30 years, states that never in his experience had there been so little buying in his lines as at present and this is in the face of a drop of prices of about 40 per cent over a year ago. He believes the bottom of the market has been reached.

Eight youngsters, between the ages of eight and eighteen, were gathered in by police today on charges of gambling. The "kids" were enjoying a highly exciting game of "African Gold" near the plant of the Warren Furniture Company. The kids have been shooting crap for some time in that neighborhood.

All the prominent contractors and finishers have been interviewed in regard to prospective work this spring and all are of the opinion that there will be no new construction this season, but there will be a large amount of repair work.

The Commissioners' Land Sale will be held tomorrow and with 98 pieces to be disposed of the sale will continue from day to day until all has been sold.

The Street Railway Company will tomorrow go back to the original 10-minute schedule on the Pennsylvania avenue line. Eight minute service has never been successful.

The March meeting of borough council will be held Monday when it is expected a successor will be named to Dr. J. C. Frantz, who resigned at the February meeting.

In a letter acknowledging receipt of a telegram, urging continuance of efforts in behalf of legislation for an embargo on oil, Congressman T. C. Cochran writes the disappointing information that there is little prospect for success at this session.

All this section is enjoying one of the mildest winters experienced in many years, sunshiny days and crisp, frosty nights have been enjoyed for almost ten days. Auto mobile traffic is continuing over earth roads, some of which are real dusty.

The March meeting of borough council will be held Monday when it is expected a successor will be named to Dr. J. C. Frantz, who resigned at the February meeting.

work and official decisions and findings on situations they shouldn't be bothered with. That's the pity.

A few excerpts of these official decisions will give you the idea of what important things government is concerned with today, and just how much of Solomon's wisdom a government commissioner must possess to make these far-reaching and history making rulings:

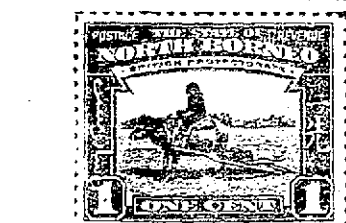

Kansas. Misconduct case 1230. A member of a family in which a feud existed, who participated in encounters between members of the family on the employer's premises, held guilty of misconduct.

Missouri. Misconduct case 1230. A claimant who aided fellow employees in taking gasoline from the premises of the employer, held guilty of misconduct even though he did not profit by his actions.

New Jersey. Misconduct case 1310. An assembly line worker who lost his head and struck the "pusher," held not guilty of misconduct when the "pusher's" misconduct when the "pusher's" misconduct.

STORIES IN STAMPS

Stamps Trace History Of World's Transport

YOU can go almost anywhere in the world in practically any type vehicle in a stamp collection. One of the oldest types of primitive transport is pictured on the North Borneo stamp above.

Many stamps are designed to show progress of transportation. Such a stamp was New Zealand's centennial issue showing ox cart, railroad, steamship and airplane.

Stamps keep pace with advances in transportation, as evidenced by the streamlined trains of Rumania's railroad issue, one of many such designs. Trucks and buses have found their way into stamp albums.

In the air, stamp designers have traced the progress of aviation from Pilatre de Rozier and his balloon to Zeppelins, and from Leonardo da Vinci's flying machine to the 1940 airliners. U. S. issues include aircraft from the Wright plane to the trans-Pacific Clippers.

"SALADA" TEA

America's Finer Tea

A Washington Daybook

By JACK STINNETT

WASHINGTON—This is the tale of Falia, the most famous dog in America today.

Falia is a jet black scottie. Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt calls him the "wiggliest bundle of fur you ever tried to lay hands on." President Roosevelt calls him "Falla."

His formal name is "Falla of Murray Hill." It was appropriated from one of the President's old Scottish ancestors, Falla of Murray Hill, so the story goes, was an outlaw in the days when being successful as a Scottish outlaw was as much of an achievement as being elected President of the U. S. for a third term.

Falla came to live at the White House something less than a year ago. He was a gift from one of President, Roosevelt's Dutchess county relatives.

The President doesn't say from whom and he doesn't say anything about Falla's parents, ancestry or kennels either. The reason is obvious. Many persons would pay fabulous sums and burst with pride if they could say: "My pup is a sister (brother, cousin, nephew, niece) of the dog who lives at the White House." The only thing I could dig out was that Falla was born in Indianapolis, of pretty royal scottie blood.

Others Come And Go

ASIDE from the squirrels that scamper around the White House lawn and the pigeons that hum a luxurious living along the White House paths, Falla has in a bid for the only permanent animal resident in the Roosevelt administration.

Jack and Jill, two beautiful brown cocker spaniels that belong to Mrs. John Boettger, daughter of the House of Roosevelt, have been popular guests, but their tenure never was long. There was another scottie, but he was a snappish sort and had to be packed off to the country before he had got to first base in Presidential affections.

With Falla it's different. There hasn't been a day that he hasn't wagged his way a little deeper into the President's heart, and if there is any one on the White House staff who has ever thought, "Damn that dog!" it never has been uttered in a whisper any one could hear.

One of the ceremonies of the President's day is giving Falla his evening meal. No one else dares cut in. Mrs. Roosevelt commented recently that Falla is rapidly becoming a one-man dog. There's no doubt about it. Who else would have had the effrontery to try to crash the President's third inaugural by hopping without invitation into the limousine and perching proudly on the back seat at the President's side?

Has Traveled Far
ANOTHER thing about Falla is his rapidly increasing travel mileage. He has been to Hyde Park so many times he knows the trees there as well as he knows those on the White House lawn. And when the President made his last Caribbean cruise, Falla sailed with the Skipper, as first mate.

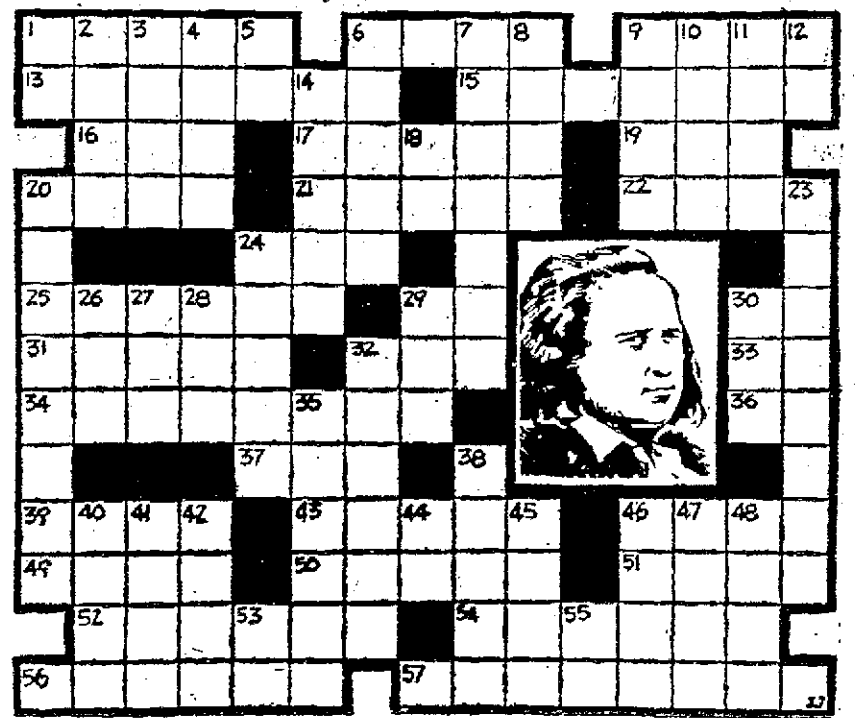

He got seasick, too, and like all the others he made a dash for the rail. Fortunately, he was caught before he slipped over for a dog-paddle in the briny.

If any further proof were needed that Falla is the nation's first Pet, it could be found in the amount of fan mail he gets. I'll bet you there isn't a glamour boy in Hollywood who wouldn't be proud to do so well.

In addition, Falla has such a surplus of luxuries that he couldn't use them all if he entitled the oldest living scottie. There isn't a manufacturer of flea powder, dog biscuits, curry combs or collars that wouldn't be happy to have Falla head his testimony list and most of these pass out generous samples, just in hope.

An Appeal to Church Workers Who Prepare Notices for Publication

Attention of church workers who prepare notices for this page is called to the fact that, while no restrictions are placed on the length of such announcements, it will be necessary to do so if the practice of writing them too lengthy is not halted.

It has been the policy of the Times-Mirror to print church items as submitted, without correcting or deleting, but in recent weeks some of the notices have been far too long, until they are taxing the facilities of the composing room.

If notices are confined to church schedules for Sunday and the week, along with sermon topics and any other brief reminders, they should not run over two or three inches.

The co-operation of all church officials and Sunday school workers is solicited, to the end that it will not be necessary to arrange forms or edit notices in the future.

MAKE PLANS TO ENTERTAIN HIGH CLUB OFFICIAL

Plans are going forward for the entertainment here on Friday, April 18, of Mark H. Smith, president of Kiwanis International, and indications are that his visit will be one of the outstanding events in the history of the Warren Kiwanis Club, it was announced at yesterday's luncheon meeting of the organization, held at the Carver Hotel.

Present plans include a banquet at the Woman's Club, to be followed by a dancing party at the Conewango Club. In addition, it is expected that there will be a tea during the afternoon in honor of Mrs. Smith, who will accompany her husband here.

Arrangements for the affair, to which Kiwanis Clubs throughout the district are invited, were announced by Harold D. Baker, general chairman of the committee in charge, and Bruce H. Trussler, the committee's finance chairman.

Because of the limited seating capacity of the Woman's Club, attendance there will be limited to 300 persons. Neighboring clubs already have indicated that they will send large delegations, it was stated.

Mr. Baker stated that additional details of the visit will be announced later.

During yesterday's meeting, President Charles Lindbergh named O. E. Loper, D. E. Schuler and William Stuart as sergeants for March.

Guests introduced during the luncheon were Oscar F. Wild, of Detroit; W. Boyd Barrett, of Ellwood City, and James Gilliland, of Oil City.

MANY STUDENTS ARE ENROLLED IN AIR COURSE

The King Air Service announced today that they already have 15 students who have successfully passed their physical examination for the next Civilian Pilot Training course which is to start within the next two weeks at the Warren Airport. Students are enrolling every day for the greatest opportunity in the history of aviation for young people to get a thorough course in ground and flight training, paid for by the United States government.

Young men and women between the ages of 19 and twenty-six are eligible. They must not wear glasses. The course consists of 72 hours of ground school which covers Air Commerce rules and regulations, navigation and meteorology. At the completion of the classes, an examination is held and the ten with the highest marks are awarded the flight scholarships. The flight scholarship consists of thirty-five hours in the air and at the end of the flight instruction, if they pass their flight test, they emerge with a private pilot license. They then have the opportunity of taking advanced training and can step at once into commercial aviation.

The only cost to the student for this complete course is the $6.00 medical fee for the physical examination and $2.00 for textbooks. It is important that anyone wishing to learn to fly contact the airport immediately as we must complete our enrollment and have our class started within two weeks. You have nothing to lose and everything to gain. All that is needed is a willingness to study. The government needs pilots by the thousands, both military and commercial, and the opportunity is yours for the asking. Come to the Warren Airport immediately, or call 9722.

SUGAR GROVE

Sugar Grove, Feb. 22. Mrs. Carl Perrin opened her home to the annual meeting of the Women's Home and Foreign Mission Society of the Presbyterian church Thursday. Thirteen members and eleven guests were present. A luncheon was served at one o'clock, followed by the meeting at which the president, Mrs. J. A. Nobbs, presided. Mrs. Kenneth Frank acted as pianist for the meeting.

Reports of the officers were given. Hugh Sherrard gave the report of the nominating committee, and the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. C. L. Veness; first vice president, Mrs. Nobbs; second vice president, Mrs. Elmer Froelich; secretary, Mrs. Scott Stuart; treasurer, Mrs. J. A. McIntosh; secretary of literature, Miss Josephine Ricker. Mrs. Perrin conducted the mile box opening service as the devovice and leaves Wednesday morning.

The Ladies' Aid Circle will serve a baked ham supper at the church Friday evening at 5:30 o'clock. The public is invited. Ernest Van Cise, Sunday school teacher of the United Brethren church at Cable Hollow, and members of his junior class enjoyed a sleigh ride party Monday evening. Besides Mr. and Mrs. Van Cise nine members were present later in the evening at the close of the sleighride. A two course luncheon was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cagle.

Mrs. Vidella Gregory is seriously ill at her home.

Henry Sears is on the sick list.

In employing the McPherran No Trump Convention, your partner, of course, must have a thorough understanding of the various responses. A response of two no trump by partner is a forcing bid and shows a tremendous hand.

In today's hand we find West attempting to interfere with the normal bidding with his four-diamond overcall. North, however, under these circumstances is the same as the two no trump bid, showing a big hand and asking partner to continue bidding. North does not have to worry which type of hand South holds. If it is the No. 1 sub-minimum type, then he has at least an ace, a king, and a queen. These tops with North's tremendous strength should produce a slam even without a long suit. If South has a No. 2 freak suit hand, then his suit should be solid, with North's help, and the slam should be made with six or more tricks in this long suit plus North's side tricks.

South, with a good solid, heart suit, jump to six hearts, and that is all the information North needs to go to seven.

You can see that, even though the McPherran No Trump is bid on sub-minimum and freak types of hands, it does not prevent you from getting into slam contracts. North and South have 13 tricks in top cards, regardless of the opening lead.

There are hundreds of cases like those, and the point is that wherever the man was found not guilty of misconduct, he got unemployment insurance or his job back. If guilty, he got nothing. There are other types of cases in the book, including one about a New York state preacher who was found eligible for unemployment insurance even though "he received no remuneration of any kind in return for his services which were performed mainly on Sunday, and who was available for full-time employment the other six days of the week, held available for employment."

Prudential Official And Wife Tendered Housewarming Party

Prudential insurance men and their wives gathered last evening at the new home of Assistant Superintendent Roy Kridler and Mrs. Kridler, East Third avenue, and tendered them a surprise housewarming party.

Games were enjoyed and Assistant Superintendent Fred Schuler showed pictures of the Prudential picnic held at Celoron and of the recent vacation trip he and Mrs. Schuler enjoyed in Florida.

William Mulvey, one of the senior staff members in Warren, presented the Kridlers with a handsome chair and silk cushions from the group.

In concluding, all gathered in the dining room, where a delicious buffet luncheon was served to the following:

Miss Mabel Jane Ott, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bidwell, Mr. and Mrs. George Kehm, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Swanson, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Schuelz, Mr. and Mrs. William Korb, Jr. and Mrs. A. A. Raleigh, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schuler, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dickinson, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Baldensperger, Mr. and Mrs. William Mulvey, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Thompson, Merle Akam and Charles Monroe, of Corry, invited for the evening, were unable to be present.

Mr. Kridler received during the evening a telegram from Superintendent Seybert, of Bradford, wishing him luck in his new home. Departure of the guests was the moment for many wishes of happy days in the new Kridler home.

Roy Lowes Honored For Silver Wedding

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy F. Lowe, 1 Hazeltine street, was the scene of a happy gathering Wednesday evening, when Mrs. John Crowley entertained there to honor the silver wedding anniversary of her brother and sister-in-law.

After a pleasant social evening, a buffet luncheon was served and a lovely gift was presented to the couple in remembrance of the occasion.

The guests were Mrs. Lena Dalrymple, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Nordine, Warren, R. B. J. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wood, Russell; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stromberg, Bradford; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Lowe, Mrs. George Lowe, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Baright, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Detsch, Mrs. Mildred Way, Miss Florence Gray, Mr. and Mrs. John Crowley, all of Warren.

Birthday Party For Mrs. Mary P. Wyman

Mrs. William Wyman, 301 Oneida avenue, entertained with a delightful birthday party at her home yesterday to mark the 84th anniversary of Mr. Wyman's mother, Mrs. Mary P. Wyman.

A pleasant time was concluded with refreshments and the honored guest was the recipient of a great many lovely gifts and greetings.

The fifteen guests included the following from out of town: Mrs. Arthur Pettitt, of Ridgway; Miss Cora Pettitt, of Morristown, N. J.; and Mrs. Elizabeth Hicks, of Brooklyn, N. Y.

The elderly Mrs. Wyman has spent practically all her lifetime in Warren county, residing at Akeley for many years before coming to Warren about 20 years ago. She is in good health, is up and about the home and thoroughly enjoyed yesterday's festivities.

TO HELP PREVENT Many COLDS

FROM DEVELOPING RIGHT AT START
3-Purpose Medicine a Success
At first sniffle, sneeze or nasal irritation, put a little Va-tro-nol up each nostril. Its stimulating action aids Nature's defenses against the cold.

And remember—when a head cold makes you suffer, or transient congestion "fills up" nose and spoils sleep, 3-purpose Va-tro-nol gives valuable help as it (1) shrinks swollen membranes, (2) relieves irritation, (3) helps flush out nasal passages, clearing clogging mucus. Enjoy the relief it brings.

Philomel Club Has American Selections

The second all-American meeting of the Philomel Club for the month of February was held yesterday at the clubhouse, when Mrs. Estelle Samuelson arranged a program of American compositions for piano and voice. This followed the study session of last week, when Mrs. T. H. Conway gave a paper on the music of American composers.

Opening with a suite for two pianos, Mrs. Charles Eaton and Miss Lillian Larsen were first heard. Other pianists were Miss Gene Ezell, playing a prelude by Abram Chasins, who comes to Warren on March 17 as the final Concert Association attraction for this season; Mrs. Eugene Kuester, in three MacDowell selections; Miss Jean Robertson, in two numbers from a recent suite by Harold Briggs, frequent visitor in Warren and friend of many members; Mrs. Eaton in Hanson and Dett numbers; Mrs. Conway in a Griffes solo.

The vocal group, works of MacDowell, Cadman, Spross, Rogers and Curran, was given by Mrs. W. E. Yeager, with Mrs. Kenneth Bjers at the piano.

In concluding, several recordings from Gershwin's "Porgy and Bess" were enjoyed.

Mrs. Freeman Peterson was chairman of the hostess committee for the tea which followed the program.

In the brief business session which preceded the program, Mrs. Allie Russell announced the business meeting next Wednesday and the open meeting in two weeks, in charge of Mrs. Peter Horning.

ALONG CAME CINDERELLA

By VIVIAN GREY

YESTERDAY: Roger Cosgrave's love for Lovely Daye has borne bitter fruit. Roger had forced Emily Perry to break their engagement, and now Emily's mother and father have driven their old car into the ocean, to home, home, home, on their honeymoon. Lovely's great beauty had led a young Mexican to tragedy. Home again on the Cosgrave estate, Lovely and Roger are awakened by a gang from New York—not a very good neighborhood.

Chapter 21

Marcia Takes It Well
"HERE'S the big shot. The boy friend in other words," Lovely introduced them. "Roger, these are the kids. I played around with in town. You've met Katie and Bill and Joe. Call the others—" but their voices drowned Lovely's.

"When it's time to call!" Katie, little and dark, like a rosebud with its petals still tightly closed, stood beside Roger.

"I tried to keep them from coming," she said in her sweet voice. "But they would. You know how people are when they get out at night, half in the bag."

"I know. And I'm glad to see you," Roger was glad to see Katie again and he reminded that Lovely's closest friend before her marriage had been such a thoroughly nice girl. Sweet, sincere, sensible.

"I think Joe was the one really started it," Katie said. "He had to see Lovely, I guess. See how it is with her. Don't you think she looks like a queen?" It was almost as if she were warning Roger, telling him that Joe had not forgotten the beauty and lure of Lovely.

Marcia appeared then. She had put on soft blue corduroy slacks and a sweater and was on her way to the kitchen to get the unexpected party. Her mood, as she faced the young people, was light and smooth as a rose petal.

"Our mother, brats!" Lovely said as she put her arm around the smaller and more delicate woman. "Isn't she a swell sport coming down to meet you just?"

"Hi-yah! Hi-yah! Hi-yah! Lovely's mom!" They all joined in the cheer and Marcia waved her hand appreciatively at them. Katie, still standing close, was examining Marcia with approval. She turned to Roger.

"Your mother's lovely," she said. "Thank you, Katie," Roger was almost drowned out by the song that started spontaneously. Faster and faster, louder and louder went the voices until they reached the last line.

Marcia laughed and hurried toward the back of the house. It had been a long time since she had done anything in the big kitchen with its ample equipment. But she wouldn't disturb any of the help. It would be fun to do things herself.

"She was busily at work when Kar poked his head down the back stairs," "What's the rum-pus?" he called.

"Lovely's friends." She went on slicing the roast left from dinner. "Well," Kar said slowly, "seems we're to know we've got a daughter in the house."

"That's a long time," Marcia turned to him laughing. "That is if you haven't forgotten how! Or did you ever know, my pet? No—the big camp pot. We'll need lots. It sounds as if we've got both the army and navy in there!"

"There are eighteen," he called. "Katie, make Roger had followed Marcia to the kitchen.

"I guess I know more about these things than you do," she said as she started expertly to flip the eggs Marcia had put in the pan.

"Gee, it sure is sweet of you folks to let us come here and get you up this way. They're a bunch of nuts. They don't mean any harm but they're goofy just the same."

"You're not," Roger looked at her with interested appreciation. "Sometimes I'm not."

Odd Meal
ROGER tramped in the huge silhouette of the house, his father made sandwiches. His father carried the large and fragrant coffee pot. Lovely's friends needed no second invitation to come to the dining room.

"I could like this place," one of the boys said, taking in the large, luxurious room. "I can see it growing on me just like a won't!"

"Not you, you lush!" from a girl. "On Lovely! She's the one that's gone glamor-girl!"

Their capacity for food was a major marvel. They were a pack of ravenous young hounds. Exclaiming over their food. Snatching from one another. Passing their cups for more coffee. Dropping the loaf sugar from Marcia's lovely silver container with reckless abandon.

When Marcia got up and went to the kitchen, Katie followed her.

"Don't," she said as she saw Marcia start more eggs and bacon and bring out a loaf of bread. "Don't get anything more for them. They'll eat forever, as long as you put food on the table. They don't need it. That's just the way they are. Gluttons. Pigs!"

Katie had taken both of Marcia's hands and was drawing her out of the kitchen.

But they seemed hungry yet Marcia said puzzled.

"They're not. They couldn't be. Not after all they've had here. They're just that way. Wolves!" Marcia allowed herself to be persuaded.

And finally the cars rolled down the Cosgrave drive to the Albani Post road as dawn was pointing its fingers over the Hudson. Lovely told Marcia and Kar they were grand sports, tops, and she loved them. She hugged Roger violently, took off the trailing veil negligee and dropped into bed an immediately to sleep.

Roger lay staring at the ceiling.

Emily would arrive tomorrow. Emily with her quiet ways and sweet consideration. Emily who was so restless. Emily who always said quietly: "If you want to hear anything you want." Self-effacing, gentle Emily, sleeping soundly. She was beautiful. And so young as she slept. He could wait. He could wait until some of the fierce young energy were out. She was worth it.

In the morning he followed the maid with the breakfast tray into his mother's room.

"Marcia, it was sweet of you to let that wild mob come in here and feed," he said sitting on the edge of her bed.

Marcia smiled. She was pretty even in the morning. "I didn't mind a bit, Roger," she said. "I thought they were rather fun. Katie's a sweet little thing."

"Yes," Roger was thoughtful. Lovely was still sleeping like a tired baby.

Marcia handed him a piece of toast with orange marmalade on it. Roger ate it slowly. Merry, Marcia's Bedlington, looked wistfully from one to the other until Marcia gave her a piece of toast.

Shock From Emily
FINALLY Roger said the thing that had been on his mind. "This going to be tough for Emily, isn't it?"

"Terribly," Marcia turned away and Roger knew her eyes had misted. She had learned to think of Emily as her own daughter.

"You don't think it could have been an accident?" Marcia asked after a long silence.

"How could it?" Roger asked. "Two driven up there so often. The street ends and you have to drive right across a little park to reach the cliff. No one could make a mistake."

"If he'd just lifted his foot and there'd been no brakes the car would have stopped."

"I know." Ghosts walked in Marcia's pretty voice. "And their hands clasped like that. For Emily, I can't think why they'd do it."

"Tough for her," Roger said thoughtfully as he stroked Merry's soft fur.

"We must be kind to her. I wonder—Lovely—Marcia asked about Roger's words came quick."

"She'll be all right. She hasn't a jealous or mean thought in her head."

"I know. Roger, but you'll have to be careful. Women never keep their love apart from the rest of life. You'll never see a man who'll always be her husband—her man. You see I know." She smiled at him. "I'm a woman, Roger."

But it wasn't as hard to meet Emily as Roger had thought it would be. She wasn't ranged in the world as that was that sudden seemed to hang like a very thin veil over her.

Roger brought her up from the station.

Lovely had been to the kennels. Winthrop Ramsey had showing her which dogs might make something at Madison Square Garden in February and why. Perfect coat. Excellent jaws. Swell stance. Fine dark eyes. And Lovely was fascinated.

"I like to watch him with the dogs," she said. "He has that fascinating, steeped in inquiry, look. He's a real dog lover. I see what I mean. He's probably been in every wicked spot in the world and taken something of each one away with him."

"I wouldn't be surprised," was Roger's comment, for he knew Win's set of dog handlers left little of life unexpected.

Win found Lovely's conspicuous beauty pleasant to have around while he groomed Blue Streak or Merry or Blaze. It would be nice to have her at the shows, too.

And so Lovely breezed in from the kennels just a moment before Emily came down from the South guest room which she always occupied.

"Emily!" Lovely's voice was a high cry of delight. People were a passion with her. She loved having them about. "But how sick and sweet you look! Like a moon or something!"

"Mostly or something," Lovely said. "But I am part of the great gals! wearing public now! I walk to work every morning and feel very worthy and ambitious and things like that."

"You mean you did, Emily?" Marcia said, aware of a little feeling of relief at seeing the girls meet as if there had never been heartbreak between them.

"You're not going back to that doctor's office," Marcia added.

"Oh, but am going back! I may as well tell you. There wasn't a cent left. Nothing."

a laceration on the chin and a possible fracture of the right knee. X-ray pictures were being taken today to determine the full extent of his injuries. According to the report at the hospital, Brew fell asleep while driving. The state motor police had no report of the crash today.

The Census Bureau reports that the aircraft industry expended $14,058,913 in experimental work in 1939, more than doubling such expenditures for 1937.

HURT IN CRASH
Milton Brew, 21, of Chaudlers Valley, is in the Warren General Hospital with injuries sustained about 4:45 o'clock this morning, when a car he was said to have been driving crashed into a tree on the Jackson Run road, about a mile east of Chaudlers Valley. He has a fracture of the lower jaw,

Harvard Students Hex and Hang That Hitler Man

"COME WIND, COME WEATHER"
By Daphne DuMaurier

(Contributed)
The spirit of old England still lives, says the famous author of "Rebecca" in this unusual book of true stories of gallantry on Britain's Home Front. They reveal the secret of steadiness and inner strength which is the heart of national defense for Britain and America. "The book was originally published on the fifteenth of August, 1940, the famous date of threatened invasion, when every man, woman and child in the kingdom stood waiting, tense, and expectant, for the blow to fall," says DuMaurier. "Since then we in this island have experienced the full horrors of war in the air. Many have faced death itself, other are homeless, parents without children, children without parents.... In spite of these things we are standing firm. We are not dismayed. You men and women of America may never be involved in the war in Europe, but the battle against human selfishness is one that cannot pass you by. Summarizing her stories, DuMaurier states, "The doctor could cure the sick body, but he could not cure the sick in heart. Megan, the 'woman from Wales', the terror of the local Council, found that one of the most difficult things in life to do is to apologize to your own family. The grocer in East London had to choose between his own profit and the well-being of his customers. The wife of the mill-manager in the North found herself saddled with two unruly evacuated boys from Tyneside; her method of dealing with them was original, but entirely successful. The Durham miner clamored for world peace, but he had first to bring peace into his own home. The wife of a retired Army officer broke down the barriers of class and shyness, and made her small but very special effort, and 'Coppin' fought in the retreat from Dunkirk and won their battle. The mother who feared for the safety of her sons might have given way to her fear—so might the charlady—but the voice of the Spirit won. Another story comes from Finland, and one from Latvia.

SLIM PANELLED COTTON
FROCK

By ANNE ADAMS
Modern housewives like their everyday "cottons" to be as well-made, slenderizing and pretty as their Sunday-best clothes. This Anne Adams style, Pattern 4679, is not only wonderfully becoming, but it's magically easy to make as well, with the Sewing Instructor to smooth the way. The curved shoulder yokes hold nice gathering below. The hip-seams curve too, for slim lines. A figure-flattering panel goes all down the front; the back waist is neatly darted. Make the neck straight edged or scallop it, if you like. And have short untrussed sleeves, or add well-shaped cuffs. For a striking effect, let light contrast or print form the panel. Send for this pattern this very day!

Pattern 4679 is available in women's sizes 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46, 48, 50 and 52. Size 36 takes 3 1/2 yards 39 inch fabric and 1 1/2 yards tie-belt.
Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coins for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly SIZE, NAME, ADDRESS and STYLE NUMBER. Fifteen Cents and a postage stamp... and the world of fashion is yours! Send for the new Anne Adams Pattern Book today—it's the most tempting original collection of easy-to-sew patterns ever presented in one book, with colorful illustrations and vivid descriptions. There are work play and party modes for everyone in the family, together with tips on styles, fabrics, accessories. This indispensable fashion guide costs just FIFTEEN CENTS. Three of Nine Who'll Advise OPM on Industrial Planning

Advising the defense commission's Office of Production Management on items concerning industrial planning is a job as big as it sounds, and nine men have been named to do it. Here are three of them, as they attended initial meeting in Washington, left to right: Harry Hopkins, who needs no introduction; Samuel R. Fuller, chairman of the nine-man production planning board, and John D. Biggers, director of defense production.

BABIES

OR BOMBERS

SOMEWHERE at this very moment a man is making a telephone call. He may be calling home to see how the baby's cold is today. Or he may be calling an airplane plant to check the plans on an order for bombers.

It doesn't matter to us what the call is about. We know that every call is important to someone. Our 17,500 men and women are ready to do everything humanly possible to put through every call—swiftly, surely, accurately.

Formal Opening Tomorrow For Enlarged Blomquist Furniture Shop

Everything is in readiness for the formal opening tomorrow of the newly enlarged Blomquist Furniture Shop at North Warren. Work was completed recently, materially enlarging the store and making other improvements to increase its attractiveness.

Ten years ago the Blomquist Furniture Shop opened for business in its present location. At that time the store was one room, 28 by 40 feet, in which there was a modest assortment on display of everything that goes into the furnishing of a home.

As time went on and business increased, the proprietor, James A. Blomquist, added a basement in 1935, doubling the size of the space at that time. This additional room was soon taken up with the ever-increasing stocks bought for better selection and for quicker delivery.

As special orders became more difficult to get without long delays, Mr. Blomquist realized that a still larger stock was necessary, so the second and third floors of The Bashlin Company were rented to accommodate the additional merchandise. The Blomquist Furniture Shop thought then that they had ample room. Such was not the case, as in the course of a year or so buying conditions became more difficult and deliveries increasingly slower.

It was a studied and well-thought-out decision that now was the time to make the store still larger and carry a representative line of appliances, linoleum, and all other articles for the home. There is still an additional stock of bedroom suites and dining room suites in their Bashlin display room, but their customers feel well repaid for an inconvenience it may be to have to go to this display room, as prices are noticeably lower due to their location and their slogan "Out of the way; less to pay" is more in effect now than ever.

The present building is approximately two and one half times the size of the former store building and is now ready for your inspection.

The opening of this store is unique in the fact that it is not accompanied by the usual high-pressure methods and sales at drastic reductions. "Give away prices" are sometimes advertised and is a method used by some when remodeling their store, but the Blomquist Furniture Shop endeavors to keep their merchandise at the lowest possible price at all times.

Mr. Blomquist extends a cordial invitation to all of his customers and friends to see the new building and the merchandise on display.

Many representatives will be in attendance, representing their factories, and many of these factories have voluntarily offered some substantial prizes, tickets for which will be given at the opening. Among the articles donated by manufacturers are inner-spring mattresses, electric cleaner, lounge chair, occasional chairs, coffee table and many other miscellaneous items that are very worth while.

The average useful life of steel in the many forms in which it is used is about 35½ years.

Four or 5 per cent is the average fuel efficiency of gasoline engines.

Around New York

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—Here is a story I picked up from Herbert Janssen of the Metropolitan Opera company. If it develops that this is another of those "cycle" stories that come to life every three or four years, kindly remember that I do not vouch for it. It didn't happen to me. I wasn't there. I am only passing it along as it came to me.

Janssen, who is a baritone, was rehearsing "Tannhauser." Eventually the orchestra got into the strains of "Evening Star" which, as you know, comes in the final act. As Janssen concluded the beautiful words of this song there came a sudden and inexplicable blast from the tuba. The director is reported to have been furious. "What is the matter with you!" he cried.

"I couldn't help it," explained the musician. "A fly lit on my score. And I played him."

If Barry Wood appears to be slightly calender conscious, there are extenuating circumstances. He was born on Lincoln's birthday (1809); he won a Yale scholarship on Independence Day (1928); he purchased his first saxophone on Decoration Day (1927); he became master of ceremonies of the 5th Parade program on Columbus Day (1939), and he made his NY stage debut, with Dorothy Lamour, on St. Valentine's Day (1940).

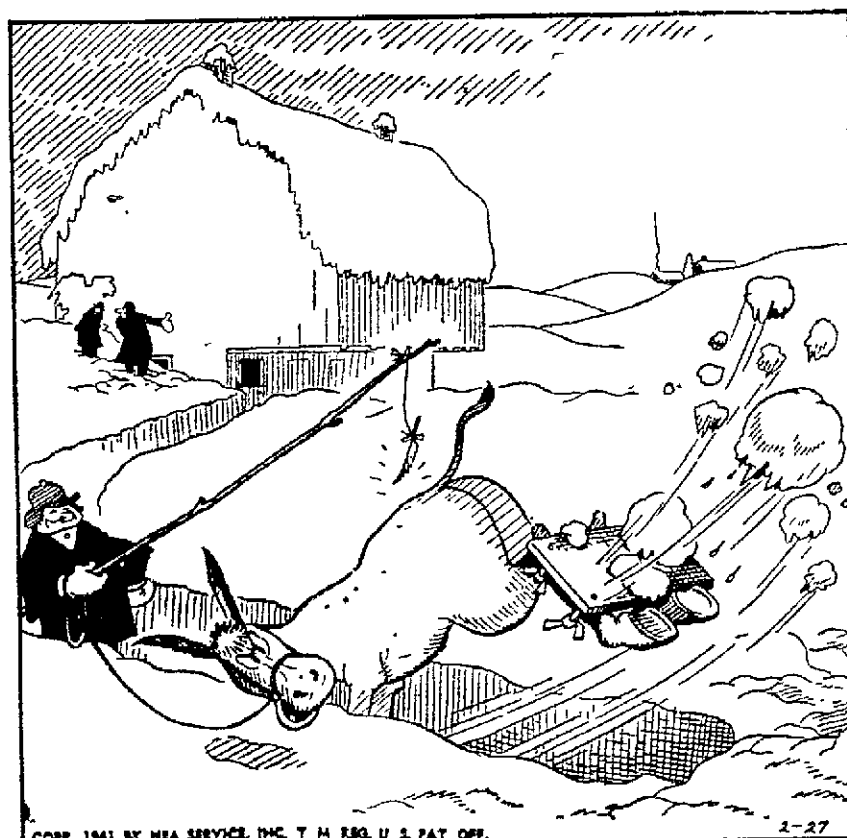

Every few months, as duly reported by the press, the police go on cleanup drives to eliminate crime. Frequently this takes the shape of raids against gambling casinos. In the past the names of those patrons caught red-handed usually have been withheld by the police. Now it has been decided to report the names of everyone caught gambling to the credit bureaus in New York. The credit bureaus will use this information against offenders seeking to establish, or extend, credit. The city has found the authority to authorize this in an old law which classifies all people caught in gambling establishments as "vagrants." In the most recent raids, the best-dressed group of "vagrants" you ever saw were bagged. They came in ermine.

ANDRE KOSTELANETZ is a Pole. His name really is Kasztelaniec. Paul Muni is Polish also, as is Gilda Gray. Osa Munson, the film actress, is the daughter of a Danish ferry-boat captain. Not only copper, gold, and silver are legal tender. In some parts of the world, tobacco, soap cubes, ingots of tin, tobacco, blocks of salt, whale teeth, and ivory tusks are used as money. Eggs, beaver skins, nails, brass rings and dried cod are also good tender.

The revolutionary changes in book publishing make it possible for anyone to assemble a good library with very little money. The reprint business is such that one may obtain the finest biographies and novels now for a nominal sum. I have seen the classics in book windows for as little as 25 cents. You can get encyclopedias for 69 cents. The lives of the world's great men, from the dawn of civilization to the present are waiting for purchasers at prices this side of a dollar.

Winless Wolverines Stand Between Local Quint And Playoffs

Coach "Hasty" Rolpen's scrappy Blue and White cagers, who have chalked up 15 victories in 20 starts this season, are now in a three-way tie for the second half lead in the Northern League of District Nine, will make their final home stand tomorrow night.

Tom Drummond's winless Wolverines provide the final barrier between the Dragons and a playoff berth, and the Sheffield High cagers have yet to register a league victory, they have put up a good scrap in each battle they have waged and are not held lightly by any club in the circuit.

While the Dragons are endeavoring to maintain the tie, the other deadlocked combatants will also be operating on their home courts.

PUBLICITY IRKS HANK GREENBERG AS U. S. BECKONS

New York, Feb. 27.—(P)—Hank Greenberg is still pretty peeved about the whole draft business today, but he felt a little better generally after taking a look at his brand-new contract and disbelieving the juicy raise the Detroit Tigers are giving him for his baseball services.

However, Hankus Pankus, like the baseball world in general and the Tigers in particular, was still all up in the air about just what baseballing he'll be doing before the army calls him. Growing all over the place, he arrived home last night as sore as an open wound about (1) the statements that he had asked deferred classification in the draft and (2) the publication by a Detroit draft board of information in his draft questionnaire which he said was supposed to be confidential.

The big fellow came in by airplane at the end of a trip from Honolulu on which he was stopped "every ten minutes" to explain the whole thing. And he was mighty put out about it. It definitely wasn't the usual docile home-run ace.

Ge, anybody'd think I was the only guy going into the army," he told baseball writers. "And I don't know a thing about it. All I know is when my number is called I'll go, and I'm not asking deferment. For any more dope, you'll have to ask that draft board in Detroit. They're making a statement every day, and every one seems to be different."

He understood, he added, that his number was 621 and that the Detroit board had reached No. 300 in calling the boys in, so he probably wouldn't get the signal until about June.

His father met him at the airport and drove him home, where he found the new contract waiting. He wouldn't disclose the terms, but you could tell from the smile that it was about the only thing to make his day pleasant.

"Oh, the club and I'll have no trouble getting together this year," he announced. "I haven't signed yet, because the contract was laying here all the time I was away. I'll leave for Lakeland (the Tigers' Florida training base) next week and settle the whole thing there. Meantime, will you fellows do me a favor and make out I'm just a guy named Joe in this draft? That's the way I want to be. They'll call me and I'll go. x x x"

SPORT SCATTERINGS

Sometimes we wonder whether it's worth while for a team to win the District Nine championship. The honor of representing the district in the statewide elimination is partially clouded by the terrific campaign of post-schedule games required of the ultimate champion, and this year the North League titlist will probably be so weary by the time it gets through that it will be battling at a serious disadvantage. Just for the sake of argument, let us suppose the Dragons, Johnnies and Owls wind up in a triple tie tomorrow night. If either the Dragons or the Jays come through, they will have played two games, in all probability, before meeting the Bracemen at Kane on March 7 for the North League championship. That makes three hard battles for the league champion.

After knocking off the North loop crown on the 7th, the titlist then gets ready to square off against either Mt. Jewett or Otto Township on the Kane court on March 11. If the Class A team comes through, it gets itself for a tilt with Knoxville, Southern League, winner, March 14, and if successful in that fray still has to take on the champion of the Clarion county circuit, Knox High, March 18. We understand that the Clarion wheel winner draws a bye right into the district finals this year, which seems to us to be just a trifle cockeyed. What is Brookville doing all this time? Why don't they arrange for the southern champion to take on the Clarion county titlist each year, just as the North League winner always accepts a challenge from the McKean county league?

Parshall Explodes Ancient Adage By Rolling 649 Block

Marshall Parshall read the old adage, "Youth Will Be Served," and just laughed and laughed!

Not content with having shown up a crew of youngsters in the Conewango Valley Country Club championship tourney last summer, in which he was runner-up to Alce Brown, Parshall last night took the ancient adage and rolled 649 to set a new season record for the Conewango Club Bowling League. The veteran hooked together games of 199-225-225 to crack the former mark, held by Chuck Young, by 25 pins.

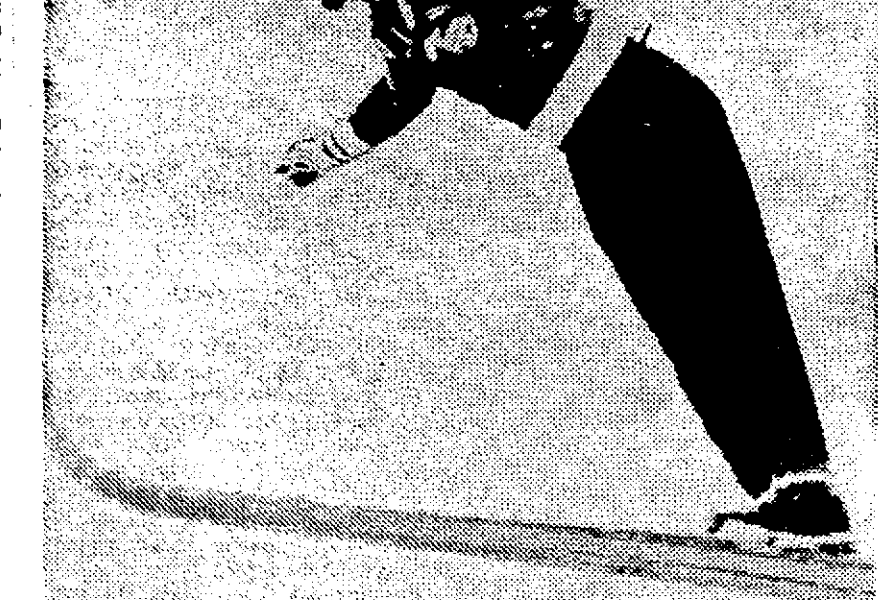

The fact that the Yergs topped the Ericksons in a clean sweep was only incidental.

Sports Round-up

BY EDDIE BRIETZ

New York, Feb. 27.—Gerry Nugent, who wanted to get rid of his two star pitchers, has succeeded. The Dodgers took Kirby Higbe and Uncle Sam soon will relieve the Phils of Hugh Mulcahy. Babe Herman put in a bid for the Seattle manager job, but the front office just filed it under "H" and let it go at that. Joe Ewland, Notre Dame line coach, is wide open for a job and he doesn't mean maybe. War correspondents at Miami report Bill Terry is completely sold on Bob Foss, former Tennessee football great.

All Quiet In Terra Haute

Bill Butland the Red Sox pitcher, who lives in Terra Haute, reports a very quiet winter. He wrote a friend that nothing much happened other than that Dizzy Trout, another home town lad, dropped around to the pool hall to show his World Series emblems.

Caught On The Fly

The proposed Tennessee-Easton College game may be shifted to Baltimore's big municipal stadium. Gates Kimball, North Carolina C. heavyweight who has been offered $10,000 to turn pro, is being advised by his coach, Mike Roman, against doing same. Casey Stengel has a piece of six new Texas oil wells. When we asked for a big red western hanky to publish on our Saline county, Kaso, deputy sheriff's badge the "Warren Wolverines" publicity organization on Wells, Waba, Wash, came through with a 27-inch that's a beauty. Thanks, partners. The done here is the Bees got Babe Dahlgren for the $7,500 waiver price.

Today's Guest Star

Busr Man's Newspaper

Vinnie Richards, the tennis pro, has followed Ellsworth Vines into golf and already is down in the low 70s. Bill McKechnie and Uncle Red like the cut of Monte Pearson's job. Ray Hill of the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin has been appointed commissioner for the Middle Atlantic Football Conference and the guys who want to do the officiating had better see Ray. Steve Owen of the football Giants is back in town after interviewing prospects in the middle west. Don't give up on Challenor in the $100,000 Santa Anita just because of that bum showing in the San Antonio last week.

"The shooting match will last as long as there's anyone left around to shoot."

There Goes Dahlgren

It seems he asked too many G's. And so they sold him to the Bees.

"21 CLUB" DOWNED BY TIDIOUTE GALS

With Miss Copeland scoring 39 points, Miss Nicholson eight and Randolph two, Tidoute's girls team defeated the local 21 Club on the Y. W. C. A. court last night, 50-26.

Miss Carlson got nine, Miss Mitchell eight, Miss Boyd five and Miss Belcher four for Warren. Joe Waples and Jim Senger officiated.

As this game ended the series, the two teams will be matched again soon.

ARMY WILL DRAFT MULCAHY IN MARCH

Newton, Mass., Feb. 27.—(P)—Hugh Nogres Mulcahy, Philadelphia National League baseball club pitcher, received word today that he would be inducted into the army for a year's service on March 8, after his plea for occupational deferment failed.

The 190-pound hurler, who is 27 and unmarried, had appealed to the district appeal board for deferment, claiming the call would work a hardship on his parents.

A group of snipe is known as a wisp.

YEARS AGO IN SPORT

February 27, 1921.—The demand for the famous "Bingo" bat, manufactured here by Harry Park, has been so great that Park has just about run out of lumber material and there is no more available this year. There is not a single major league team which does not use a large number of Bingo bats, but the local man will only be able to supply.

February 27, 1931.—"Whitely" Von Nieda, former Penn State ace, scored 12 and Riley 11 to lead Girard to a 53-21 victory over the Yes Gas Station night last at the "Y" court. "Turp" Pedlow's seven points were the most scored by any Yes Gas player.

AMBERS GETS ONE MORE CRACK AT LEW

New York, Feb. 27.—(P)—A lean guy from Texas, with sagebrush for hair, stabs for ribs and rocks in his fists, will go into Jackson Square Garden ring tomorrow night determined to show he's one man who can lick Lou Ambers and make it stick.

The lean guy with the perpetually hungry look is Lew Jenkins. Last May it took Jenkins less than nine minutes to knock Ambers' lightweight crown right off his head.

This time there will be no title at stake, since Ambers, who has grown a bit, will come into the ring at about 138 pounds. But Jenkins is anxious to prove that all good things must come to an end some time, the good thing in this instance being Ambers' record of never having been licked twice by the same man.

PICARD RETIRING FROM TOURNEY PLAY

St. Petersburg, Fla., Feb. 27.—(P)—Henry Picard, a former National P. G. A. champion and a top-line golfer for years, is planning semi-retirement from tournament competition at the height of one of his greatest scoring sprees.

When Picard shot a five-under-par 66 yesterday to lead in the $5,000 St. Petersburg Open, it marked his seventh consecutive round as front-runner of the professional brigade.

Subject of a change of mind, Picard plans to leave the tournament circuit after the St. Augustine pro-amateur March 15-16. He will take over his new duties at the Twin Hills Club in Oklahoma City April 1, and thereafter expects to play only in the National Open, the P. G. A. championship and perhaps a couple of other tourneys annually.

Training Camp Notes

By the Associated Press
San Antonio, Tex.—Now that manager Casey Stengel has Babe Ruth and veteran Earl Averill in his hands, the Boston Bees' spring camp is buzzing with rumors of a trade in the very near future. Indications point to the sale of Outfielder Max West to one of several National League clubs reputedly eager for his services.

Fort Myers, Fla.—Hal Trosky, Cleveland first baseman who jumped to a .295 batting average last season has been given permission by Manager Roger Peckinpaugh to become a switch hitter, batting righthanded against southpaws. Trosky says he started his career as a right-hander (he still throws that way) and sees no reason why he shouldn't be able to improve his percentage working from alternate sides of the plate.

Havana, Cuba—The lineup which the Brooklyn Dodgers will field against the Giants tomorrow for 1941's first exhibition game is likely to be the one that also will face the Giants in the National League opener at Ebbets Field in April. Even the starting pitcher probably will be the same Kirby Higbe. The other hitters, for three-inning matches, will be Bill Swift and Curt Davis, with Medwick, Reiser and Yanner in the outfield; Camilli, Coscarart, Lavagetto and Reese in the infield and Herman Franks long most of the catching.

St. Petersburg, Fla.—Bill Dickey's coming to terms marks the passing of another New York Yankee era. This will be the catcher's 14th season with the Yanks, and not a man on the squad was here when Bill first came up. In those 14 seasons he's dropped below .300 only twice—in 1933, to .279 and last year, his worst when it was .247 for 106 games.

Miami, Fla.—With Manager Bill Peckinpaugh's 25 players and former New York Mayor Jimmy Walker in Havana for the three-game series with Brooklyn, Tony Cucinello was in charge of the Giants' stay-at-homes. The Jersey City pilot, in this capacity will act as a one-man economic committee in case any of the holdouts, notably Catcher Hank Danning decide to show up.

San Bernardino, Calif.—These are the days when the rookie is in his glory. It's no different at the Pittsburgh Pirate camp where the veterans stood around admiringly as 20-year-old Frank Kalin bolted the first ball over the left field fence 354 feet away. He was a standout hitter for the Bucs' farm at Gadsden of the Southeastern League the last two years.

Anaheim, Calif.—Connie Mack says—and hopes—that "you will see a different Chubby Dean this season." The Philadelphia Athletics' southpaw started off like a world-beater a year ago but soon began to take on weight and lose control. Now he's working hard

Parshall 225, 225

Only two matches were rolled in the Elks League Night wheel last night due to the departure of Company J. . . The South Side Market took three from the Garland Inn and the Turner Radio snapped off all four from Hoagvall's Hardware. . . Vic Juliano hit 553 and 188 to sweep the high marks.

Machine Shop increased its lead in the Struthers-Wells circuit by taking three points, while its nearest rivals, Foreman "B", were dropping a trio for Foreman "A". The Engineers swept their match with the Heaters and walked into third place, dispossessing the Sales club which was blacked out by Process. . . Hahn picked up the only honor roll game, 227 and his 541 was good for high total.

The doctors partially squared matters for an earlier defeat when they knocked off the remnants of the Conewango Club Big Five for three points after the league match. . . Quay McCune's 559 was the top total and Follmer Yerg's 203 was high game. . . Only Bob Ritchie was in the 500 bracket for the varsity.

CAPITAL GOSSIP

By JACK SHINNETT

WASHINGTON—Around Capital Town:

CCC is having a strange birthday—strange because it occurs "anytime between March 31 and April 17." This quoted phrase was included in the notice that went out to all camps that the Civilian Conservation Corps may do its local and national celebrating of its eighth birthday in that period. The reason is that Congress passed the CCC bill eight years ago on March 31, but it was April 17 before the first camp was established.

Speaking of the CCC reminds me of an interesting little item tucked away in the annual report of James J. McElroy, director. It is one of those things that is good to remember whenever we get to thinking smugly what a darned smart country this is. The report pointed with pride (and shouldn't it?) to the fact that 9,000 boys had come into the camps during the last year who couldn't read or write but when they left it could do both. What goes on in this country of "compulsory education" when 9,000 lads can join any organization without the ability to sign names?

Dog Drafted

BURIED in the army records is one of the odd dog stories of all time. Maj. Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell, commandant at Fort Ord, in California, issued an official order that Laddie, a 10-year-old dog, should be transported from Chanute, Kas., to Fort Ord. The dog was sent by train to Kansas City, Mo., and by plane from there to the California camp. The reason Laddie's owner, Everett Scott, enlisted several months ago. Laddie started grieving for his master, went on a hunger strike and almost wasted away. Friends and relatives of Scott put in a mass appeal to Major General Stilwell who immediately ordered Laddie into the service. According to reports Laddie knew, as soon as the order was read to him what was up and broke his hunger strike even before he was put on the train. (But he died a few days after reunion with his master.)

Case Of Crowding

A GROUP of newspaper men trooped into a 30-foot long room the other morning for an announced interview with Chester F. Palmer of defense housing. They assembled around the desk of a young woman secretary. At the far end of the room was another desk at which sat a man, busy over papers. The secretary was in something of a dither. The press conference had, she said, been called off. She couldn't understand why the press had not been notified.

The press, however, was a little insistent. Since everyone was present, couldn't Mr. Palmer see them? The secretary didn't know. Wait a minute, she would find out. She picked up the telephone, punched a buzzer and chatted animatedly for a minute or so with someone at the other end of the line. She asked the gentlemen of the press to wait just a minute. The man at the other end of the line got up and approached the gathering. "Gentlemen," he said, "I am Mr. Palmer. I'm sorry but the conference will have to be delayed until tomorrow."

One of the boys who knew the secretary was kidding her later about the 30-foot telephone call. She said: "What do you expect me to do, yell at the boss? Nobody has thought of an answer to that yet. Besides it is only one of the thousand and one things that have occurred here because the rapidly expanding defense program is outgrowing Uncle Sam's briches. Why, down at the army and navy, there are offices in shanties built on the roofs. The employees laughingly call them penthouses—which won't help this summer when the wind goes dead and the sun beats a rat-tat-tat-tat-tat on the house-tops."

All-American Girl

HOW many of you saw it at Valentine poster advertising the air corps, which showed a blonde beauty with arm upraised against a heart and an air corps eagle in flight? The insignia read: "Be a Flying Cadet in the Army." According to reports here, the blonde beauty is Betty Lou Thompson, Columbus, O., co-ed on the Ohio State university campus. Betty, so the story goes, is pretty much an all-American girl. One of her great-grandfathers was a Union spy in the Civil war and it fell to the lot of another great-grandfather, who was governor of the Confederate Loyalist prison, at Richmond, Va., to order the execution of Great-Grandpa Thompson.

and riots which brought a declaration of martial law for the province of North Holland, including its principal city, Amsterdam.

"There is no preventing parachute troops from landing and some boats might reach the coast," the spokesman said, "but no big vessel with upwards of 1,000 agents could land. We see to that."

"At any rate, disturbances in Holland which led to a number of deaths and institution of a military administration in one province guarded as a great political development. It is a little incident which cannot possibly cause any serious trouble."

to man British defense posts on the Malay border, facing Thailand.

In the war at sea, the Germans painted another black picture for Britain's all-important convoy system.

Berlin asserted that the Nazi Luftwaffe sank or damaged 16 ships totaling 102,500 tons in an attack on a British convoy yesterday 315 miles off the west coast of Ireland.

Nine ships were reported sunk, three heavily damaged and four others damaged to a lesser degree.

Hitler's High Command further declared that a Nazi speedboat sank a 4,500-ton armed merchantman off the English coast.

The Germans acknowledged meanwhile that "British agitators" may be landing by parachute and by swift motorboats at night in the Netherlands, where Nazi authorities yesterday clamped down military rule to break a series of riots and strikes.

In the British-German air war, RAF night raiders reported a "very successful" attack on the Rhine-land city of Cologne, the 58th- and fire-setting assaults on the docks of Boulogne, France, and Flushing, Holland.

The Germans reported night raids on London and Cardiff, Wales, and asserted that RAF bombers attacking western Germany had "planlessly" dropped their cargoes, mostly on villages, killing a number of civilians and wounding many.

Local officials took every precaution for the safety of the departing company and the large crowds of people. All members of the police force were on hand and the emergency truck of the fire department was located at the station for use if necessary.

There was only one slip-up in the entire proceedings. Musical instruments owned by members of Company I had been taken to the station and placed on the platform.

When it left Warren, the train included seven Pullman cars, three of which were occupied by the local company, and a baggage car. Another baggage car was added at Kane.

The questioning of cabinet of ficers was decided upon by the house Democrats several weeks ago.

The senate and house quit yesterday until next Monday, after a three-day session in which relief became the prime question.

The train carrying the local company was one of two to pass through Warren last night. Another, carrying the second battalion and band of the 112th Infantry, from Erie, went through Warren at 10:58. This train, made up of 13 cars, left Erie at 8:40. It was to arrive at Indian-ton Gap at 7:30 a. m. this morning.

Even Shirley Goes for the Uniform

Shirley Temple proved that girls of all ages go for a handsome soldier in uniform when, as guest of honor at California Military Academy ball in Los Angeles, she stepped out smiling to dance with the school's best-looking cadet, Sergeant Thomas Spear. Still dimpled at 12, Shirley is currently making a "comeback" in the movies.

Company I Leaves for Camp After Rousing Farewell Demonstration

road station, most of the members of the company spent some time during the afternoon with their friends and relatives.

In order that there might be no hitch in the departure of the troop train from Warren, officials of the Pennsylvania Railroad were on hand. These included W. D. Supple, of Erie, superintendent of the Renovo division; P. D. Belknap, local agent; David Williams, yardmaster here; and W. F. Merritt, railroad police officer.

Merritt accompanied the train to the end of the division at Renovo. When it left Warren, the train included seven Pullman cars, three of which were occupied by the local company, and a baggage car. Another baggage car was added at Kane.

Local officials took every precaution for the safety of the departing company and the large crowds of people. All members of the police force were on hand and the emergency truck of the fire department was located at the station for use if necessary.
